LOVE LUNDELL

OMEN

April 25 - May 25, 2024

Wetterling Gallery proudly presents OMEN, Love Lundell's fifth solo exhibition at the gallery.

Love Lundell's artistic practice is comprised of collaged paintings, drawings, and prints. Dreamlike, mystical, and surreal, yet also anchored in the everyday, his evocative scenes draw the viewer in, while hold them back simultaneously. Employing a collage technique across various media, Lundell intuitively brings together images derived from various sources, which are recontextualised to reflect a hallucinatory inner reality. He draws from his personal childhood memories, dreams, books, online sources, amongst many other sources.

Lundell's new series of paintings, OMEN, marks a conscious departure from his previous, highly figurative style. An emphasis is now placed on materiality and interior details - motifs that do not carry a specific weight for the artist, to which Lundell refers as 'artistic intertextuality'. No clear narratives unveil, while hints prevail. Instead, the artist joints fragments from different sources - for example, a piece from a 1975 shampoo advert meets a 1999 Ikea catalogue, or details from an Egon Schiele painting are found next to illustrations from a 1976 French children's cookbook - all issued from the artist's vast and widely varied image bank. Through overlapping of disjointed images, a sense that everything that seems to have a certain meaning becomes simultaneously meaningless is felt, and ties in to the artist's chosen exhibition title.

The exhibition is accompanied by a dedicated catalogue, featuring an insightful interview conducted by Sofia Edgren with Love Lundell, in February 2024.
